DEDICATION . . .

*For his devotion to Scholarship and his untiring efforts to lead his students
to a greater appreciation of literature
and a realization of the fuller life,
we, the editorial staff of the thirty-second Sou'Wester, dedicate this volume to DR. CLAUD HOWARD, Head of the Department of English.*

EDITOR'S NOTE

From the editor of the Sou'Wester,
To you, whatever student you are.
This is your book.

Take hold of it, open it, look at it,
But we ask that you do not criticize it
More than you would wish it criticized
Had you done it.

Think only of those things we did—
Not those we didn't do.

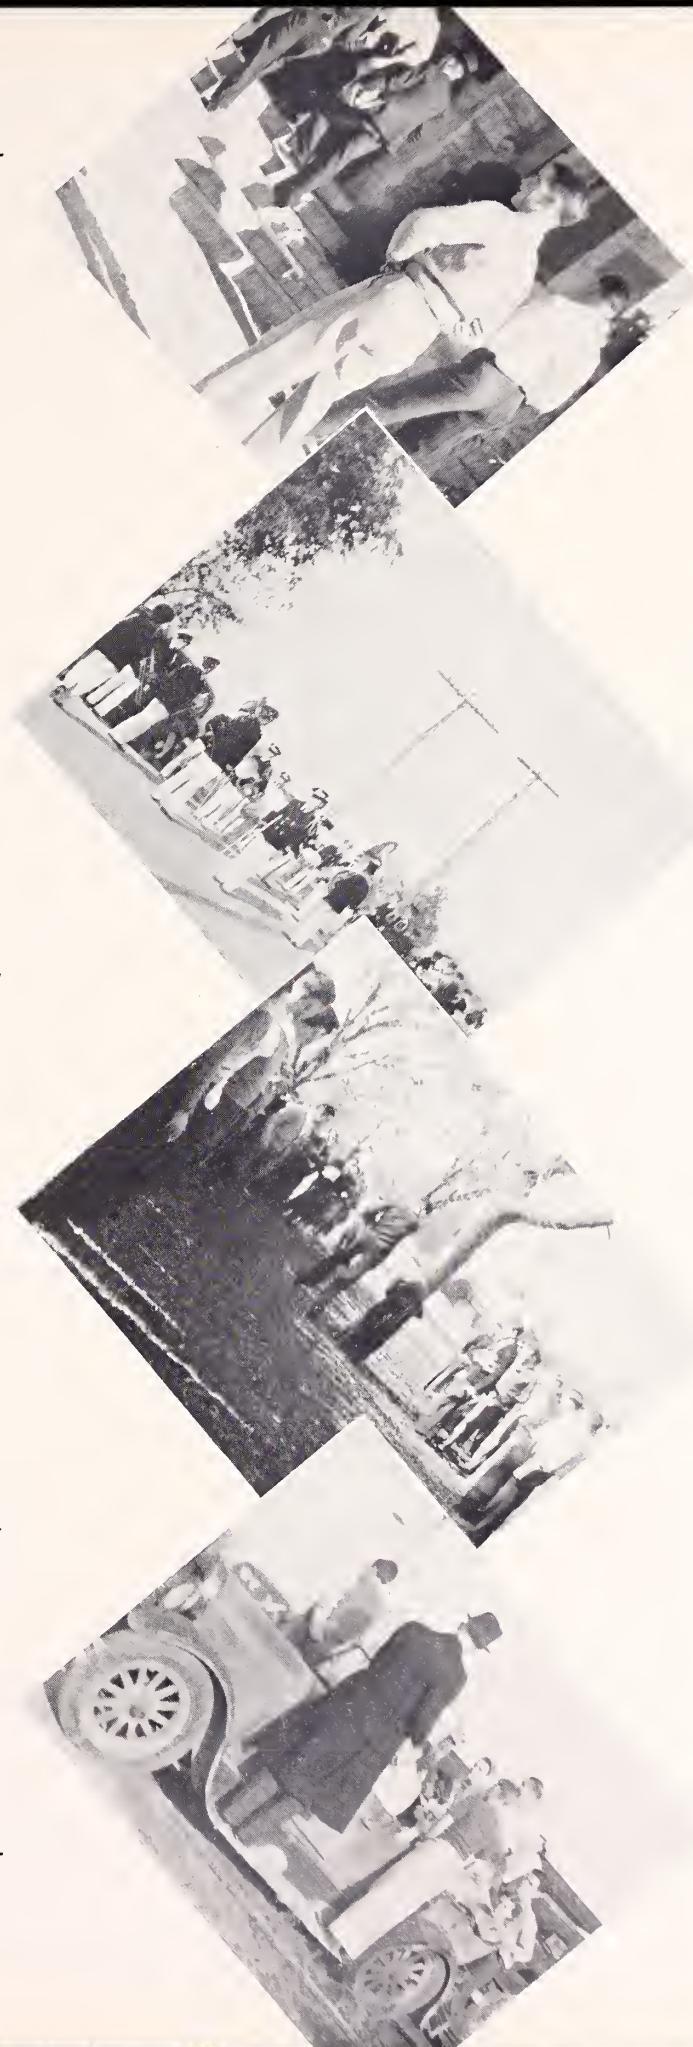

If your picture is in the wrong place,
Or your name is spelled with an extra k,
Please forgive us.

There were three hundred and sixty-seven of you,
Each with a name like yours.

It was lots of fun,
Some of the time,
And lots of work
Most of the time,
But done thinking of you
All the time.

For we wanted to remember you,
As we wanted you to remember us,
As we wanted you to remember each other.

So take it with a happy heart
And with a friendly farewell
To the boy you sat by in Psychology
Or your partner in Chem. Lab.,
To the girl with whom you went to the Zeta formal.
Or your date for the midnight show.
It's a hail and a goodbye to you, my friend
Until we meet again.

JOHN WILLIAM BERGIN

STATE OF TEXAS

COUNTY OF WILLIAMSON

I, I. J. McCook, Auditor of Southwestern University, certify that I am familiar with the terms of the trust agreement made by Mrs. Louisa Elizabeth Wiess on the 26th day of June, 1936, wherein Southwestern University is made primary beneficiary of certain stock and securities listed in said trust agreement conditioned that it has on or before March 1, 1937, performed certain conditions in said trust set forth.

I hereby certify that the two debts named in said trust as required to be satisfied as a condition of Southwestern University receiving the stock and securities therein named, to-wit, the "Womans' Building Debt" and that classified as its "Floating Indebtedness" have been satisfied and discharged, except as to items of floating indebtedness consisting of debt to faculty members and other accounts amounting to the sum of Ten Thousand Eighty-Four Dollars Sixty-three Cents, ($10,084.63.) That as to said sum there is cash on hand with which to pay the same in full.

I further certify that said two debts above mentioned, that is the "Womans' Building Debt" and its "Floating Indebtedness" have been satisfied (including the securing of the Ten Thousand Eighty-four Dollars Sixty three Cents ($10,084.63) cash in hand above mentioned) without the use of any part of the University's endowment funds or assets as they existed on the 26th day of June, 1936, and I further certify that in addition to the satisfying of said debts that Southwestern University has in hand new money or its equivalent in stocks and bona fide securities satisfactory to it and believed by its management to be of a value in excess of Forty Thousand ($40,000.00) Dollars.

I further certify that in addition to said floating indebtedness all other current operating expenses of the University occurring since the making of the Wiess Trust on the 26th day of June, 1936, to January 31, 1937, have also been paid and discharged and there are no outstanding current bills prior to January 31, 1937.

JOHN WILLIAM BERGIN, Ph. B., D. D.
PRESIDENT

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Hurrah for the 1936-37 Sou'Wester!

Hurrah for the happiest, the most enthusiastic student body in Texas!

Our friends have just wiped out $420,000.00 of debt and added more than $200,000.00 to our endowment. Southwestern has never faced a brighter future. Our student enrollment is 34 per cent above that of last year. The year's work has been wonderful—The Megaphone has never sounded a clearer call nor has the Magazine been more ably edited. We have the most colorful bond and orchestra in our history. Our debators brought home the honors. Our football team is stronger than it has been in years, and the boys are talking conference championship. Our golf and tennis teams are in the limelight.

Young folk, ninety-seven years of achievement look down upon you. You who are "Fish" this year will graduate on Southwestern's one hundredth anniversary. What of the future? In 1940 our five point five year program will be consummated. Our first objective is already reached—our debts are gone!

Can't you see Southwestern outstanding as a college of Liberal Arts and Fine Arts? The star of hope gleams brighter on the horizon of our second century. Can't you see our new gymnasium in the offing? A winning football team? Can't you see Southwestern with buildings and grounds and equipment, a faculty and a student body the best in all her history? A student body large enough for enthusiasm but not so large that the faculty cannot know every individual student in friendly sociability? That has ever been Southwestern's glory. Southwestern has been called the School of Personality, the College of Leadership. That which Southwestern has done in the past is but a prophecy of what the future holds.

Forward Southwestern!

BLUEBONNETS

Just above we have five of the glowing beauties for which Southwestern is justly famous—the upper left hand we see groups of students at work on the science of economics as portrayed by the game monopoly and as prescribed by Professor Williams—then students snapped in classes—top right, the editor of the magazine wasting his time—below, Mr. Dromgoole busy studying the relation of Kant to the Cambridge Platonists.

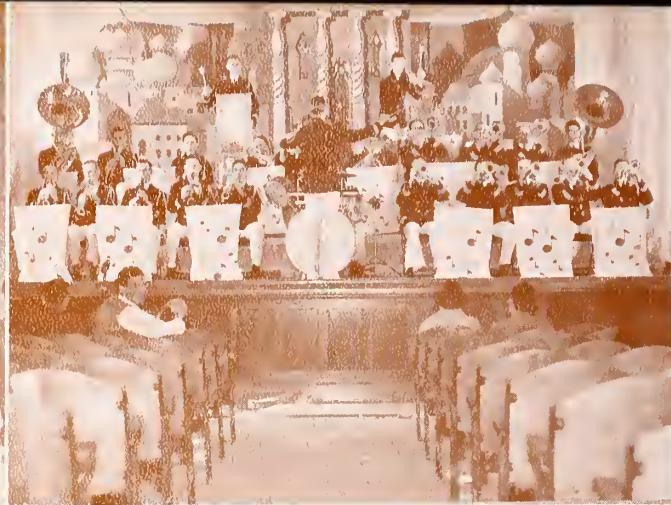

In the snow of a cold, cold winter—glancing hither, thither, and yon, we see—the current infatuation of Ellis and Edwards—they're pushing Thell round just because they're bigger than she is—You can see the frolicing Tri Delt all around the page—below in the right hand corner, the ever constant combination of Triplett and Carpenter—and three little barbs on the wet sidewalk—no wonder Herman is so little, being mashed like that.

If you haven't seen those trees that grow upside down back of the Ad Building, visit them before you leave—four Barb people fixed for cold weather—Some more Barbs below—and then Mr. Marsh posing for a snapshot—at which time both the snapshooter and the snapshotee were shot, with a camera that time.

This is nothing but a lot of hooey—Tom Johnson's stooges preparing the sets and advertising material for the Pigskin Review—Just a bunch of artists in the upper left—all posed for a publicity picture next, with Tom's face hidden—Then Story smiles because he knew all the time they wouldn't sell any tickets—a rousing drinking scene from the production "She Stoops to Conquer"—A lady chemist at work, we always wonder how girls could stand to get those smelly chemicals all over their fingers—The one and only picture of the Barb dance—showing Harold Craft and Florence Womack, the Barb Beauty, Governor Ferguson with Franette Brockett.

TOM JOHNSON'S PIRATE SWING BAND

Pirate Swingsters under the direction of that diminutive master of swing, Tom Johnson, assisted by Romping "Rollo" Storey, panicked the Southwestern crowds for the entire season of '36 and '37. Both productions of the "Pigskin Parade" enjoyed huge successes. Our hats are sincerely off to Johnson, Storey, Perk, and the boys for their mastery of modern swingtime. We'll never forget Perk's rendition of "Sugar Blues".

The Southwestern debaters have had a season which any school might well envy. They attended five major tournaments and participated in 60 debates with other colleges. The first team, composed of Willis and Stanford, attended three tournaments, went to the semi-finals in two tournaments and the quarter-finals in the third. They took part in 27 debates, winning 19 and losing only 8 decisions. On April 8 Baylor University sent a team to Georgetown; Southwestern made this the occasion of her third consecutive victory over Baylor this year, keeping our slate 100 per cent clear against our neighbors for the season.

Willis also won a first place cup in after-dinner speaking and a first place medal in extemporaneous speaking.

Mme. Slaviansky has given the University a chorus of exceptional ability this year. They have, besides singing in all the principal cities of Texas, given concerts in Chicago, Gary, Indiana, and in the states of Missouri and Oklahoma.

On the left we have the freshman flag and the little fish trying to get it down—At least the upper-classmen didn't get it down. The first time in many long years—Bailey and Adeline Herman sniped as a minter of record—Whit the man with his picture in all the papers—And leaving after the "S" boys had been speedily and fittingly initiated into the royal order.

Top tennis players, Charlene Shaw—Sidney, Sidney tch!—Mildred Hodge and Savage—This is what a Zeta looks like when she is dressed up—Two cute little Zetas McKinney and Savage—Little Liz is Mrs. Hoss Ross now—More tennis players—That is Charlotte Anne Sterling smiling so big right in the middle—Ted was too manly and tall to get into the picture, but nice package by his side—Look out Portia, we don't like that look on Eddie's face—Saxon without Ferguson, Swanzy, etc.—We'd hide too.

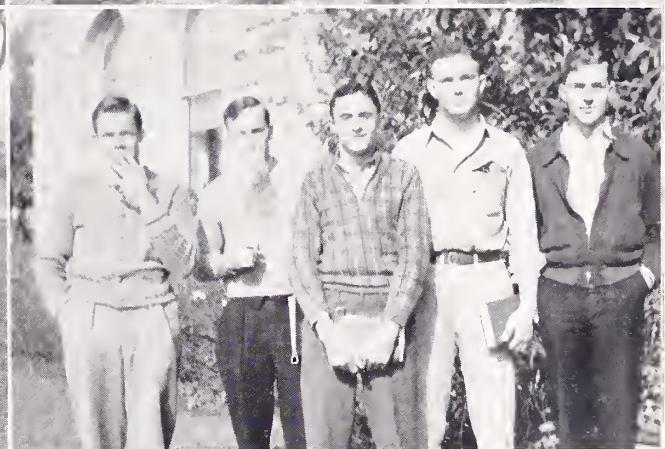

We might call this a bunch of pretty Deltas if it weren't for the three pretty Zetas down there—Anyway you can see that it is a bunch of the girls on an outing at the river—we can't see any boys—they sure cut didos tho—Maybe it would be fair to say that the Zetas were not with the Deltas—Two different occasions.

For the page to the right, the Kappa Sigs making Jackasses out of their pledges—the boys seem to be right at home and enjoying the fun—We wouldn't want to say just who or what about the second picture down, left hand column—he last picture shows the PWA boys—In a manner of speaking—Earning their tuition—This was not one of the pictures sent to NYA headquarters—On the whole right hand column we find various groups of the boys—football men at the top—Byrd is in good company for once—Swede and Morgan are big things aren't they—you needn't notice the bottom four—they are just nasty dishwashers—Really not skilled labor like the waiters.

Arlene, demure on a pastoral background—This can't be Cottulla—All we know is that it isn't Edwards—Wish we were up there with Bateman—just people on the river—It does have an attraction you know.

Mrs. McKennon and Mr. Holmes prove that they are hunters—Condrey, Tatum, and Stanford—Spud and Louise in a nice shady spot—Now, now Tatum, you shouldn't do Martha that way—Compton and Bernice will do nicely in an Epworth League—Wasn't Joyce cute when she was little—as she is now—As for Van and the other three—Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who etc.—Dunn and Hackbarth taking pictures—And of course you would know Olin's face anywhere.

FOOTBALL REVIEW

Coach "Lefty" Edens' Pirate team of '36 combined the hay-wire madness of up-and-coming freshmen, the zip and fire of several scintillating juniors and the clear thinking and consistency of four earnest seniors.

It was an ideal combination, destined to be Southwestern's team of the decade. And, at the beginning of the season, our supporters talked of a great year, of a championship; but these men could not reckon with an obstinate misfortune that beset and harassed the team.

It was big and fast, this team; the weight and speed in the right place, and the boys practiced as though they wanted to win.

On the opening day of the fall training session seventy huskies reported for practice. Coach Edens barely managed to suit them all, and it was quite a job to pick the best men in the crowd. Some of the men were sent home, others dropped out, until at last only about forty remained, an ideal squad.

In the opening game the new Buccaneer team defeated Victoria Junior college, 6 to 0, in the mud. Lonnie Morgan, freshman from McAllen, won the game with an off-tackle thrust for a touchdown in the third quarter. The game was played on Snyder field.

The next week the Pirates played Westmoorland's Broncs, from San Antonio, and although they won by a 13 to 0 count, they looked slow and ragged. The light Bronc team made them look bad in the last quarter with a passing attack that carried them to the shadow of the Pirates' goal-line as the game ended. The Pirates counted in the first and last quarters; "Baby" Ray Couser, of Uvalde, and Bob "Bear-Tracks" Knight, scoring in order.

The Corsairs ran into their first opposition in the form of the North Texas

Coach Lefty Edens

State College Eagles, from Denton. The week before the Eagles had battled S. M. U. to a standstill, and all indications pointed to their winning from Southwestern with little or no trouble. The game started and the Pirates surprised their critics by taking almost immediate charge. Brilliant running by Ray Couser put the ball in scoring position on the thirty yard line, and from there he passed to Gilbert Swanzey, freshman end from Weslaco, for a chalker. Again, in the third period, the Pirates drove down the field to score. It was a plunge by Knight that earned the points. The frantic Eagle aggregation opened with an air raid in the final quarter and scored one touchdown. The game ended with the Pirates leading, 12 to 7.

That game was played Saturday night, and on Sunday morning an attending physician stated that Coach Edens would be confined to bed at least three weeks. He had contracted typhoid fever.

Without his guiding hand the Pirates rapidly slid down hill. They lost to St. Edward's and to the Southwest Texas State Teachers, of San Marcos, by the scores of 6 to 0, and 13 to 0. In these games they showed almost nothing in the way of an offense and their defense was none too good. But, worse than the defeats, Ray Couser, spear-head of the attack, received a severe knee injury when making an end run in the San Marcos fracas and was able to play in only one other game during the year.

The following Monday found Coach Edens back at work on Snyder field and on that week-end the Pirates showed an improved form to beat Abilene Christian College, 8 to 7. It was a long pass in the final minutes of the game, Ted Fehr to Lonnie Morgan that pulled the game out of the fire.

A long trip to Kingsville and a stout A. & I. team combined gave the Pirates a sound threshing. In this game the Pirates showed a fine passing attack and Lonnie Morgan won laurels by doing some plain and fancy ball running.

The Pirates returned to Georgetown to meet Trinity U., from Waxahachie. The teams battled nip-and-tuck on a muddy gridiron and finished the game neck-and-neck. Again the Pirates were forced to come from behind to save their skins. This time it was a long, last hope, pass from Fehr to Snookie Blum, of Taylor, that scored the tying points. This game saw Lonnie Morgan go out for the rest of the season with an injured shoulder.

The Pirates, badly crippled, were in three more games but only played one. Ray Couster, the Uvalde comet, came back into the line-up against Daniel Baker and inspired his team-mates. The Hill Billies got off to a nine point lead in the first half and then relied on the kicking toe of their all-conference quarterback, Howard, to keep them out of danger. Couster, however, didn't like that; so he returned a punt to the fifty yard line, and then shook loose around end, behind some capable blocking by Hershel Orr and Captain "Dusty" Simmons, and went for a touchdown.

the last period, the Buccaneers started a drive from their own forty yard line that carried them to Daniel Baker's 5 yard line, where they lost the ball on a fumble making a first down. Daniel Baker scored all of her points on blocked punts.

The Pirates wound up their season, sans Couser, Morgan, and several other outstanding players, against Howard Payne and were badly beaten.

Walton Simmons, senior captain, from Coleman, was placed on the first team of the all-Texas Conference selection at the end of the season; and Hershel Orr, of West Columbia, made second team.

Coach Edens named twenty-one lettermen, seventeen to return next season. The list includes: Captain Walton Simmons, Weldon Byrd, Max Busshart and Norman Presley, seniors; Ray Couser, Hershel Orr, Roy Tyner, Snookie Blum, Doc Mann, Freeman Mays, and George Rader, juniors; Joe McCook and Max Lackey, sophomores; and Louis Bremer, Gilbert Swanzey, Lonnie Morgan, Jack Allen, Bob Knight, Buster Smith, Ted Fehr, and Conrad Saegert, freshmen.

When it was over the Pirates had won three and lost ten, not by any means an imposing record for a basketball season. But it could have been worse . . . we could have lost thirteen games.

It all came down to the point that the other schools had more and better basketball players than we did. Actually, they man-powered us!

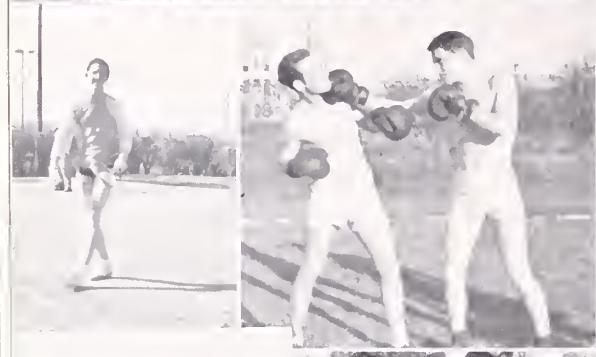

The Pirates nearly always led at the half period but faded in the last quarter in face of the steady stream of fresh men they faced. In many of the games only five or six Buccaneers saw action—they were the only ones Coach Edens considered capable of playing Texas Conference ball.

George Endicott, three letterman captain, was the main-stay of the team and did a fine job of leading. At times he was very sensational but he never gained the consistant good form he displayed as a junior.

Roy Tyner, junior forward, was sensational in most every game. He had a fine season scoring average and will be in line for great honors next season. Freeman Mays, at the other forward, did fine work, scored quite a few points, and will also be back next year.

"Dusty" Simmons, guard, gained conference recognition for his capable work. He played air-tight defense and did some long range scoring. "Dusty" will play no more for Southwestern. The freshmen came in very handily: their ranks sparkled with stars who will be heard of for three more years. Most outstanding were "Slim" Beasley, Vernon "Monk" Meyers, George Foster, Bill Cottingham, and Henry Myers.

With these freshmen coming along, aiding such scintillators as Tyner and Mays, the team of 1938 is expected to be one of the strongest in the conference.
